

Meet Your Sitter

Name: Caroline Fermin

Hometown: New Orleans

Current job: Dancer for Gallium Dance

Bio: Native Caroline Fermin graduated from the Juilliard School in 2007 with a BFA in dance. Since then she has danced for a variety of companies and choreographers across the nation. She currently performs and tours with Gallim Dance and is spearheading their outreach program.

In addition to performing, Caroline is passionate about education. She has worked with non-profits, schools, groups of artists, and families to create nurturing, creative programs for children of all ages and backgrounds. She has taught at Riverbank State Park, Culturarte Dominican Cultural Center, and Brooklyn International High School. Caroline currently teaches for ASTEP (Artists Striving to End Poverty). She lives in Brooklyn with her cat where she loves to bake bread and try out new recipes.