

Meet Your Sitter

Name: Lucie Baker

Bio: Lucie Baker was raised in Seattle, Washington. She moved to New York to study dance at The Juilliard School. Since graduating she has performed with a number of companies including Jane Comfort and Company, Tamar Rogoff Performance Projects, Erica Essner Performance Co-Op and is an active choreographer who has had her work performed domestically and internationally. Lucie also grew up studying folk and social dance at Lady of the Lake Dance Camp and with Vela Luka Croatian Dance Ensemble. As a teacher, Lucie is committed to community building and educational outreach through the arts with Artists Striving To End Poverty (A.S.T.E.P.). She has spent time teaching dance and arts empowerment to children of all ages in different venues all over the world. She loves learning from the children she works with.